

This is a poor way to transmit data! The interference that this mode causes, across ALL HF radio bands, makes HF radio mode almost useless. The interference noise is so great that you can't even hear a strong signal. This not only makes shortwave listening impossible as well as amateur radio communications. This could have GREAT ADVERSE EFFECTS on emergency and military communications in locales where needed. Please do not let this plan go any further!

Thank you,
Bob Langford
New Port Richey, FL