

I just received a new phone line in my home and I would like to register it to the "do not call" list. When I tried to activate the numbers it said it would not go into effect until 10/1/2008. Can something please be done about this?