

According to what what I have read from the ARRL, Broadband Over Line (BPL) definitely will cause widespread interference. I am against the use of BPL because it would cause problems for users of the HF spectrum. This includes Amateur Radio Operators, Short Wave Listeners and Military and Transportation services.