

The FL panhandle is already sitting is a "pool" of RF noise from the amount of relatively low antenna structures and "noisy" paging sites. The last thing we need is another RF "hash" or "noise" problem from BPL. As an Amatuer radio operator, I say NO please to this proposal.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
Walter Jinright
KG4BVD