

Digital data transmitted over the power lines (BPL) will cause radio frequency interference throughout the radio spectrum. I don't want electrical power lines radiating any more interference that will interfere with emergency, aircraft, AM radio and amateur radio communications.

Respectively submitted,

Charles D. Summers - W4DON