

The technological problems that BPL will cause in overpowering Amateur Radio transmissions, are well known to the FCC so restating those aspects would be superfluous. Please consider the extraordinary contributions that are made to public safety by Ham Radio and consider the damage caused by their disappearance. Thank you.