

Reports are that BPL causes extreme noise interference to HF communications. This could be very detrimental to the numerous government stations and others communicating nation wide on HF for Homeland Security.