

As an electrical engineer who has spent 30+ years working in electrical/electronic power systems design, I am opposed to Access BPL without further study. The RFI generated will cause significant problems in other systems.