

I urge the FCC to postpone any implementation of Broadband Power Line (BPL) technology until such time as any and all interference issues are resolved. The risk to communications of all types is not worth the return.

Thank you,
Michael Roell
San Diego, CA
619-287-7985