

To the FCC: Please do not approve the use of electric power lines to carry broadband data transmission. Since the studies in Japan and elsewhere have shown that significant interference will be created when these systems are used, any approval should be delayed until all interference issues can be eliminated-- or ultimately denied if the technology continues to pose interference issues.

Thank-you.

Mark Sulander

Minneapolis, MN.