

I oppose the use of power lines for BPL transmission because of interference with vital military, ham radio and other communications. Please consider the findings of British and Japanese studies on the subject and require further research, development, and rigorous testing before approval is considered.