

no broadband on powerlines until the interference issues have been resolved. the internet access is not worth the problems it will cause other types of media.