

I wish to express my sincere concern that the Broadband over Powerline movement at this point demonstrates a real threat to the operability of vital and often critical communications equipment and processes in the Amateur Radio community.

The FCC should require indepth and independtly certified testing of current sytems to ensure they operate as specified and that they do not interfere in the areas assigned to Amateur and other communication networks.

Respectfully submitted.