

Sounds good on paper, but is it?

How can you possibly send data over unshielded wires in a spectrum meant for broadcasting and Amateur radio without causing interference??