

Your proposed use of BPL is another example of the misuse of resources, public trust, and a detriment to the environment. The interference to traditional use of the radio spectrum is predictable, and is grounded in basic engineering and common sense. Adequate infrastructure for broad band already exists.