

Please do not use the existing electric power lines to transmit broadband signals into peoples homes. The frequency range this will utilize is between 2 and 80 MHz which includes the entire shortwave signal spectrum. This will make it impossible to listen to shortwave broadcasts. I am getting a little tired of computers ruining everything simple in America.