

I recently heard that you have allowed the F-word to be used at any time on TV. I am very against this, as a person and especially as a mother of two boys. I do not use that language and do not want that language to be used in my presence or my children's presence. Please reconsider and stop this language on TV. Thank you.