

The FCC needs to focus its attention on spam emails, and leave radio stations alone. Listening to a radio station is a choice, if it's offensive to me the station can be changed. Spam emails, on the other hand, come to me whether I want them or not. And they do not discriminate according to age. Little kids get this crap every day.

I got 30 spam emails in the last 12 hours. Please do something about this.