

I work in managing technology and networking for a university with 20,000 students and 5,000 plus faculty and staff.

We see a growing demand for unlicensed spectrum and would hope to see the FCC make more available for the growing uses of applications in our educational community.

Thank you for your consideration.