

I want the world to know that what happened at the Super Bowl about Janet baring her breast is NO BIG DEAL! What they place on TV programming is worse than that. Let's see we have the Victoria Secrets show where women running around half bare in sexual costume, daytime soaps are wild with SEX & Violence, what about the award program when Britney Spears kissed Madonna, the list goes on....C'mon Congress, Senators, you people quit making a big fuss, that's when kids pay attention to things is when grownups make a big stink about it. You People need to quit wasting tax payers money with all the unnecessary meeting...grow up!!!!
