

I have though long and hard about the nudity event of the Superbowl. I am writing to encourage you and support you in preventing future events like this. If I wanted to see things like that I would have gotten cable. Worse than the event was the replay...though edited. Please count me as a supporter against stations like MTV who have no sense of what is decent. thank you for your strong action against things like this.

Sincerely

Jen Schmidt