

Based upon all I have read, I am adamantly against the use of BPL as it severely inhibits the potential response of amateur radio during any event. The noise level to radio communications is prohibitive at this time and I feel BPL is unnecessary with so many other options available, and feel that the American people as a whole are being led in the wrong directions with little or no publicity regarding thi sissue.

Michael Goins
K5WVG