

I strongly urge the FCC to not accept the Broadband Over Power Line (BPL) system. I feel that this type of communications is very detrimental to other forms of communication, and will cause interference to other forms of communications. FEMA, and others are stronglt against this.