

BPL (Broadband over power lines) is a technology which has been shown to be faulty. It generates copious interference to many other services, including services like Amateur Radio that provide crucial disaster relief. Therefore, BPL will reduce our level of homeland security, and will harm the American public. I urge you to limit or eliminate its adoption until the technical and interference problems are solved.