

I find the recent decision to go ahead with BPL DESPITE all the known interference issues an insult. It is done to please industry regardless of the interference consequences to emergency communications, HF usage and other services below 30 Mhz. I request BPL not be allowed for at least another 10 years to allow HF technology to move ahead of its vulnerability to this kind of interference.