

BPL will cause harmful interference to the amateur radio bands and could destroy a much valuable national resource in the process. Please reject this proposal as it is ill conceived and poorly executed. The proposal is fraught with many technical issues that need examination, including but not limited to the cost/technical viability of amplifying the signal over power lines to carry long distances. You have to ask yourselves why so many other countries have already turned against this proposal?

Rob Orr
President
North Shore Radio Club
KB9RST