

Please consider prohibiting any BPL system that causes harmful interference to licensed radio services. Unbiased parties should accomplish extensive field testing of BPL and the results should be reviewed and considered before the FCC allows deployment of BPL systems. BPL should not be allowed until it is demonstrated that BPL will not create harmful interference to licensed radio services throughout the HF and VHF spectrum.