

Please reconsider and do not allow the implementation of Broadband BPL. Use of the defined spectrum operation will have detrimental effects to HF operations. Propagational influences will effect these emissions. Where these signals may not heard locally, these signals maybe heard one hundred to hundreds of miles away. This will make it almost impossible to locate an interfering source.