

I would like to go on record of not supporting Broadband over Power Lines. I am concerned about the potential interference with shortwave radio communications.