

I am against this proposal. It is important to keep our airwaves clean and working properly. Broadband internet is offered in so many other ways that this is just not necessary. Maybe we should look at regulating the price of broadband to make it more affordable.