

Please do not allow broadband transmission over power lines unless tight restrictions on leakage of radio signals is in place. To disrupt the shortwave radio signals which have the benefit of the "grandfather" effect, being in use much longer and having a profound effect if disputed is clearly wrong.