

If we allow BPL we will have no way of stopping the interference if and when it leaks out.

The formal complaint process will be too hard and too expensive for the public to follow through with.

Other means of Broadband transmission to all is in the process of starting up now, wireless internet and other media.

Thank you

Dean Lonning