

As a licensed Amateur Radio operator, I am opposed to the BPL legislation. It would be a great danger to interfere with the amateur operation in the time of emergency service that they provide.