

I would just like to express my concern that the BPL may cause a lot of interference to Amateur Radio operators. By allowing this to go over unshielded powerlines, this will cause a lot of interference to us. It would greatly frustrate each Ham Radio operator that has spent several thousands on his/her equipment only to have it be junk and un-useable because of this.

Thanks,

Todd A. Dorschner