

I, along with many other users of the radio spectrum, am extremely disturbed about the NPRM concerning the use of powerlines to radiate broadband internet. The radio frequency spectrum will be extremely polluted by this ill conceived scheme. This radiation will be transmitted all around the world under the extremely varying electromagnetic conditions that can exist. Listen to the amateur community and heed the NTIA and stop support for this greedy corporate initiative.