

BPL must not be allowed to interfere with HF and VHF services at all cost. Protecting any and all licensed HF and VHF users should be a top priority and the burden should not fall on the current user to defend themselves against this threat.