

BPL should not be allowed in the MW and SW spectrum. It has shown to render it useless. Power companies do not address interference now from faulty equipment. You are allowing the ionosphere-a natural resource to provide worldwide communications to be effectively killed. Please look at the fact that our own military is against this. Randy Fulco C.E.T., FCC Licence PG-10-23756