

Broadband Over Power Line is a bad idea. The interference radiated by this design will pollute various parts of the radio spectrum and render them useless. I am an amateur radio operator, AD4MA, and this scheme will have a serious, detrimental effect on amateur radio and the ability of amateur radio operators to continue to be of service to local communities and the country.

Please don't do anything to promote this flawed scheme.