

From everything I've read this Broadband Over Power Line causes lots of interference to the HF spectrum. It seems that much more testing needs to be done by an impartial party and then a decision made on those results.