

As a systems engineer for a large telecommunications firm with an extensive background in RF, in my opinion the BPL system will in fact interfere with HF radio communications and possibly into the VHF region. This system needs to be evaluated in an impartial review.