

I am concerned about BPL because, if it is approved for my community, I might interfere with it. Since I have an FCC license as a radio amateur and operate in the high frequency bands, my fully legal signals might interfere with the BPL and I do not want to abandon my hobby as a ham!