

From retired Supervisor Network Operations of an Enterprise Communications Company. Many rural areas are in the "dark ages" of internet communications. BPL is not the answer. Keeping power as clean as possible has been forgotten by commercial power companies in exchange for more revenue. I oppose this BPL project. RFI from this sort of experiment is not progress.