

I respectfully request that the FCC delay any more development of BPL until any and all issues regarding its interference with high frequency radio communications are resolved. In particular BPL should not interfere with the emergency communications capability of federal, state, local and amateur radio organizations.