

Please look at the technical issues concerning the interference caused by BPL and decide, big money and business are not correct on this one. There are many issues broguht forth and testimony from even foreign countries who have tried this unsuccessfully, interference is a mojour problem to Armed Forces, homeland security, and all others using the radio spectrum.