

I am opposed to allowing broadband communications to be transmitted over power lines. It will either destroy or severely hamper my ability to communicate over the hf/vhf/uhf spectrum using amateur radio. This has been my primary hobby for over 50 years and I am opposed to anything that would make the hobby less enjoyable or even end amateur radio as we know it today.