

I am upset that you are following a right-wing, religious agenda. You are a government organization that should be listening to the will of ALL of the people. How about asking the entire public what they think.