

All of the studies by the ARRL and others have convinced me that a very high level of interference to licensed services, like amateur radio and shortwave broadcasting, will result if BPL is allowed to continue and be deployed. I am very strongly against this deployment and urge the FCC to cancel any further deployments and disallow any future ones.