

NO BPL! Interference to radio communications systems has been proven to be highly detrimental. BPL will prove to be disastrous to all HF and possibly VHF systems as per field tests made by highly skilled technicians at the American Radio Relay League. I strongly suggest that the FCC find ways to PROMOTE escalated deployment of fiber optic systems to rural areas by telecommunications companies (RBOCS and others). This will expand broadband the right way... the clean way.