

The interference cause by BPL could seriously impact public safety by interfering with radio communications used by civil defense, military, and emergency responders. As such, it threatens the safety of the United States and could be in violation of the Patriot Act as a terrorist activity.