

I encourage the commission to reject the proposed rules allowing use of Broadband Over Power Lines. Demonstration tests in this country and others have show clearly that the technology is flawed, but mor importantly, it impacts other previously regulated radio communication services significantly. Don't sell out HF and low abnd VHF radio communications to greedy utility companies!